Special Invitation to 1st Six Sigma Meeting For Software and IT Professionals in France

The first French Six Sigma Conference designed for Software and IT professionals sponsored by Six Sigma Advantage Inc. (www.6sigma.com), six-winners consulting (www.six-winners.com) and hosted by France Telecom SA (www.francetelecom.com). We are proud to invite you to an unique discovery of what Six Sigma is and how it has been successfully employed to dramatically improve performance in the Software and the IT Industry.

Introduction

The list of companies who implement Six Sigma is increasing every single day. Six Sigma Advantage Inc. is the first and largest company that has brought Six Sigma into Software Development and IT Departments. Six Sigma Advantage and six-winners consulting – their strategic partner for continental Europe and Middle East - offer for the first time in France an unique tutorial, workshop and platform to learn more about Six Sigma and how to apply it in the Software and IT Industry.
